IOL Broadband changes name to IOL Netcom

Mumbai (PTI): Internet services provider IOL Broadband said it has changed its name to IOL Netcom Ltd and will amalgamate Exatt Technologies Pvt Ltd with itself.

The company informed the Bombay Stock Exchange that it has received certificate of incorporation from the Register of Companies for the name change.

Further, the company said the Karnataka High Court has also approved the amalgamation of Exatt with itself in an order dated December 20, 2007. The scheme has become effective from January 15.
